PEARL RIVER COUNTY DIDN'T JUST HAPPEN TO PROSPER

TN THE past ten years, Pearl River County has moved from one of the lowest five Counties in farm family income to one of the highest five. Pearl River County didn't just happen to prosper, as Jack Flowers, Editor of the Mississippi Extension Service has stated in his article which appears elsewhere in this issue. It was the work that was started and that has been carried on by a group of outstanding agricultural leaders who went the limit in executing their carefully planned program.

There is no difference in Hancock and Pearl River County insofar as soil conditions are concerned. They are both counties whose lands have been denuded of their virgin timber, and are today classed as cutover lands. The people of Pearl River County, once their timber was removed, set about with a definite program to develop the cut over lands in their County. Tung Orchards, improved pastures, cattle raising, dairying. This work in the development of the County was carried on by the business leaders of the County. They visualized the importance of having a rural section that was self sustaining, and after ten years these same men are able to see their County rise in farm income from the bottom of the list to near the top.

What have we done in Hancock County? The only development that has taken place has been in dairying, and to be perfectly frank about the matter, we can give the credit for this development to these same leaders in Pearl River County. 9,000 men in service with the Leath- have seen active service in the Pa-The dairying industry in Hancock County started near the ernecks, and that the Marine Corps cific war theater. Pearl River County Line and has gradually worked its way across the County. Of course, once it got a foothold it was fostered and further developed by our own people. When called upon the people of Hancock County will respond to assist in these projects. No finer cooperation could have been expected than was given by the people of Bay St. Louis to the establishment of the cooperative creamery. We think that they are ever ready if some one will take the lead. For this reason we have contended that the reactivation of the Chamber of Commerce was the answer to the solution.

Since becoming an active organization much has been done towards inducing some industry to locate in the County, and from all indications this may happen. We should not lose sight of the fact however, that the Chamber of Commerce can do much to help Hanccok County develop agriculturally. They can help to move Hancock County from near the bottom of the list in farm income as has been done in Pearl River County. It is only necessary that they plan a definite program and not 3 quit when the going appears to be hard.

We hope to see the day come when the people of our county can say, "We can make our living at home."

BROKEN HOMES RAISE CRIME RECORD

TN AN address before the annual meeting of the Catholic Youth, J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in discussing the importance of efforts dedicated to good citizenship and toward clean living, said:

"The postwar crime wave which we feared is upon us. It is mounting in intensity. It is growing in severity. It is not isolated. It is nationwide. In fact, other countries report similar experiences. Lawlessness is not inherited; it is acquired and so is character. Therefore, is it not much more important to build character?

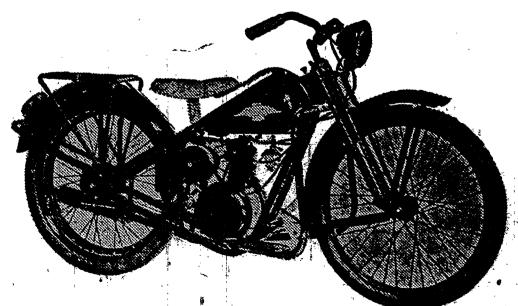

"View with me, if you will, the passing parade of crime. It presents a sordid spectacle. Out of each 1,000 marching in this endless parade, 521 have marched before to a prior arrest, and 210 are under 21 years of age. More persons aged 17 are arrested than in any other age group. Of each 1,000 murderers, 140 are under 21 years of age; of every 1,000 robbers, 360 are under 21; of burglars, 510; of thieves 340; of arsonists, 250; of 1,000 car thieves, 630 are under 21; and of 1,000 rapists, 320 are under 21 years of age.

"In the background of each of these youths lies a story of shocking neglect. Boys and girls are being deprived of the care and guidance necessary to the proper formation of their characters. Their lawlessness had its roots in every instance in broken homes, in homes where mothers and fathers, because of their neglect, misunderstanding or irresponsibility, had failed in their primary obligation."—Industrial News Review.

PUBLIC HEALTH

The current report of the State Board of Health, covering the period from July 1, 1943 to June 30, 1945, contains much interesting data on the health situation in Mississippi. It shows a shift in causes of death and a decided reduction in death from diseases possible to prevent. It is shown that in 1914 tuberculosis caused more deaths than any other disease. In 1944 the rate on deaths from that cause had shifted from first to sixth place. It shows that pneumonia had gone from second place in 1914 to seventh place in 1944. In 1914 typhoid fever held seventh place and in 1944 was so low that it was not listed among the ten greatest causes of death. The record shows that the largest number of marriages in the state in any one year was 49,-565, in 1942. The largest number of births in any one year was 59,408, in

M.-G-M.'s Exciting New Thrill Drama with James Craig

Beautiful Signe Hasse and handsome James Craig are a romantic couple of culprits in "Dangerous Partners," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer thrill Sunday and Monday at the Ortte Theatre.

As Carola Ballister, Miss Hasso is an exciting adventuress who joins forces with Jeff Salghn (Mr. Craig) when their trails cross in quest of the secret of four millions—for a cool million dollars each-made out to a mysterious beneficiary.

From the moment their eyes meet, it's danger and adventure for the daring pair. From Cleveland to New York and then into New England they follow a perilous trail involving a mysterious menu that holds a desperate secret, and a war criminal plot reaching into the heart of our "Dangerous Partners" is at all times a fast-moving and attentionarretsing film, expertly directed and produced. The screen play is a tight, well-written affair by top-flight scenarist Marion Parsonnet.

House Wiring.... ....Electrical Repairs

Rev. John T. Dearing, Jr., pastor of the First Baptist Church has returned from Pine Bluff, Ark., where he went to be present at the wedding of his sister. The following account of the wedding appeared in the Pine Bluff Sunday paper: Mr. and and Mrs. John T. Dearing, announce the wedding of their daughter Sarah Flizabeth to Mr. Howell Falconer Westbrook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Lane Westbrock of Pine Bluff, Ark., at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, February 3th at their home.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a soft green dressmaker suit with brown hat and accessories and carried a white Bible topped with white orchids. She had as her Maid of Henor Miss Jo Ann Gadberry and Mr. Westbrook had 3 his father as best man. The ceremony was read by Rev. John T Dearing, Jr., brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed before the mantel of the fireplace, banked with Jackson Vine and a cascade arrangement of yellow snapdragons and acacia in the center with candelabra on either side, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

The bride is a graduate of the Pine Bluff high school and attended Ouachita college at Arkadelphia, Ark. She is a member of the Girls Cotillion and held a responsible pcsition with the Arkansas Power and Light Company. The bride has visited here with her parents and Mrs. A. M. Carter of Ashville, N. C., who before her recent marriage was Miss Odile Rauxet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Rauxet of this city. her friends are interested in her wed-

Victory Clothing Collection Exceeds Quota

Had you heard the big news? The Victory Clothing Collection exceeded its quota of 2,000 garments by 58 percent. The number of garments, shoes and bedding totaled 4740 pieces Mr. Kirkpatrick, general chairman for Hancock County says, "This shows that when the people of Bay St. Louis and the county give to Overseas War Sufferers they give from their hearts.

This clothing collection was sponscred by the Bay St. Lcuis Rotarians and they and Mr. Kirkpatrick are to be congratulated on the fine piece of work they did. But they are deeply grateful to the people who so generously responded and gave so freely of what they had. The quality of the articles given showed that those who contributed gave of the best they had.

The sponsors and chairman of this collection not only extend thanks to those who gave but to churches and 3 schools, merchants and the Post Office for the use of their places for depots and for the courtesy to those who brought in their packages. To put it briefly Hancock County 1 has kept her record.
